

PARTNER

Maria Alejandra Ochagavia

Lawyer, mediator, director and statutory auditor.

Professional profile

Lawyer from the University of Buenos Aires, Master in Administrative Law from Austral University and mediator trained at Fundacion Libra and CIJUSO. She combines legal practice, institutional management and direct participation in corporate bodies.

Law legal and administrative-law background	Management extensive institutional career	Governance cross-sector board and oversight roles
---	---	---

Career

Professional practice

She has practiced as a lawyer and mediator since 2017, with experience in health-related matters and dispute management. She participates in the governance and oversight of companies operating in mining, mobility, manufacturing, luxury goods, smart metering and payment services.

Argentina's Ministry of Economy

Between 1993 and 2017 she held specialized advisory, coordination, institutional management, service-quality and administrative responsibilities in senior-level areas.

National Institute of Statistics and Censuses

She began her career at INDEC, working in survey analysis before moving into law and public-sector management.

Selected experience

- Regular and alternate director roles in Argentine companies.
- Regular and alternate statutory auditor roles.
- Corporate governance and corporate legality oversight.
- Administrative law and institutional management.
- Mediation, prevention and dispute management.
- Health-related matters and institutional relations.

Education

- Master in Administrative Law, Austral University.
- Law degree, University of Buenos Aires.
- Mediator training, Fundacion Libra and CIJUSO.
- Member of the Buenos Aires City and San Isidro Bar Associations.